

June 27, 2007 -- For immediate release

Dean Clay Added to Crimestoppers Most Wanted

Robinson man wanted in series of local burglaries

(Robinson, IL) -- Crawford County Crimestoppers has added Dean Clay to its list of most wanted people. Clay is wanted for burglary. He's accused of breaking into the Highland Avenue Baptist Church. Investigators with the Robinson Police Department believe that he is also a suspect in 19 other burglaries in Robinson. The burglaries started in November of 2006 and they've included break-ins to homes, businesses and churches.

If you have any information on Clay's whereabouts, you can call Crimestoppers at 1-888-596-STOP (7867). You can also submit tips online at <http://www.crimestopperscc.org>. All tips to Crimestoppers are anonymous and you can be eligible for a cash reward for your information.

Crawford County Crimestoppers is a community-based organization that helps law enforcement by offering the anonymous tip line. The website has a list of unsolved crimes that police are looking for tips on. It also has a list and pictures of the most wanted fugitives in the county. Crimestoppers pays cash rewards for tips that help solve cases and find wanted criminals.